Why Ethel Changed Motels

Last week, Ethel checked into a motel on her 60th birthday and she was a bit lonely. She thought, "I'll call one of those men you see advertised in phone books for escorts and sensual massages."

She looked through the phone book, found a full page ad for a guy calling himself Tender Tony - a very handsome man with assorted physical skills flexing in the photo. He had all the right muscles in all the right places, thick wavy hair, long powerful legs, dazzling smile, six pack abs and she felt quite certain she could bounce a loonie off his well oiled bum.... She figured, what the heck, nobody will ever know. I'll give him a call.

"Good evening, ma'am, how may I help you?"

Oh my, he sounded sooo sexy! Afraid she would lose her nerve if she hesitated, she rushed right in, "Hi, I hear you give a great massage. I'd like you to come to my motel room and give me one. No, wait, I should be straight with you. I'm in town all alone and what I really want is to make out. I want it hot, and I want it now. Bring implements, toys, latex, rubber, leather, whips, everything you've got in your bag of tricks. We'll go hot and heavy all night - tie me up, cover me in chocolate syrup and whipped cream, anything and everything, I'm ready!! Now how does that sound?"

He said, "That sounds absolutely fantastic, but you need to press 9 for an outside line."

MB Council for International Cooperation acknowledges efforts of Interlake's 'global citizens'

By Teresa Carey

Two members of the Interlake community, Christine Penner of Winnipeg (Assistant Superintendent with the Interlake School Division) and Derryl Reid of Clondeboye, have been recognized by the Manitoba Council for International Cooperation (MCIC) for International Development Week, which took place from Feb. 3 to 9.

This year's theme was 'I Am Making A Difference,' with a special focus being placed on the United Nations eight millennium development goals, to: 1. Eradicate Extreme Poverty and Hunger. 2. Achieve Universal Primary Education. 3. Promote Gender Equality and Empower Women. 4. Reduce Child Mortality. 5. Improve Maternal Health. 6. Combat HIV/AIDS, malaria and other diseases. 7. Ensure Environmental Sustainability. 8. Develop a Global Partnership for Development.

A total of nine Manitobans from all walks of life were chosen to be recognized for their efforts to tackle one of the millennium development goals. Videos profiles were then produced for each of them, and are available for viewing on the internet at www.mcic.ca. (Visitors can also enter a contest to win Fair Trade chocolate for a year, valued at $260.00.)

Penner, who has made a mark working toward millennium development goal 6, to combat HIV/AIDS, malaria and other diseases, founded "Grannies Gone Global," based in Winnipeg's North End. This organization supports grandmothers in Uganda who are looking after grandchildren whose parents have died of AIDs. In her video profile, Penner explains how the sustainable livelihoods that "Grannies Gone Global" helped to develop are allowing many Ugandan grandmothers to financially support themselves and their families.

Reid is the owner and operator of Green Bean Coffee Imports. He is working toward millennium development goal 8, to develop a global partnership for development. His company imports and roasts direct fair trade coffee beans through a direct trading partnerships with a Bolivian cooperative. In his video profile, he talks about the improvements he has seen in the co-op members' ability to purchase equipment and improve their standard of living.

MCIC profiles a wide range of Manitobans, including educators, students, business owners and health care professionals from urban and rural Manitoba who demonstrate that everyone can make a difference in the lives of others. Their actions, such as raising awareness at local events, volunteering their time and providing health care and education at home and abroad, are helping to see that the world is on track to meet the millennium development goals by 2015.

MCIC is a coalition of organizations involved in international development whose mission is to promote "respect, empowerment and self-determination for all peoples, development that protects the world's environment, global understanding, and cooperation and social justice."

MCIC helps promote public awareness of international issues, fosters member interaction, and administers funds for international development.
