The Volunteer's Role

This is an exciting placement of someone looking to use their communication skills towards improving Gender Equality in Nigeria. This placement is through our partner, the Girls Power Initiative who needs a volunteer to help them communicate effectively with their beneficiaries, partners and donors to raise awareness about their work.

As a volunteer, you will:

- Support the development of communication materials
- Support the development of a communication strategy
- In collaboration with the Information and Communication Technologies team, the volunteer will support the creation of a virtual library and support the development of E-newsletters

Essential Academic Qualifications:

- University degree, college diploma in Communications, Computer Science, Marketing or related field

Essential Professional Background:

- Knowledge of global development issues

Cuso International covers the following costs:

- Return airfare and visa/permit costs
- Accommodation while in country
- A modest living allowance while overseas
- Modest support for accompanying partners and dependents going on placement with you for 12 months or longer (VOCE Project only)
- The cost of required vaccinations, antimalarial medication and health insurance
- Access to Employee Assistance Program during your placement and when you return
- Travel and accommodation for the five-day pre-departure training course and in-country training orientation and again for a reintegration debriefing weekend after you return.
